A heartwarming, true story of loyalty, love, courage, and renewal. Just This Side of Heaven is a healing journey for all ages of a bond that transcends the differences between people and their companions, taking readers to a deeper level where all beings live, and die, as one.

Dr. Mark A. Arcuri - Transformational Life Guide

I walked through the mist as the long shadows of morning danced beside me. This October morning had a chill to it beyond the light New Mexico desert breeze. I turned, out of habit, looking for you. Each morning you were always by my side, tracing my footsteps, no matter what the weather was like, no matter how early it was, you were there with me. Today was different, however. You were no longer beside me like you were before; you were just this side of heaven.

Just This Side of Heaven is a heartwarming journey about Penny the beagle, whose life touched so many people both on the pages of the Sleepytown Beagles series and in person. This story will grab your heart from the first page and have you laughing and crying until the last.

Timothy Glass was born in Pennsylvania and moved to the southwest with his family as a child. Tim graduated from the University of New Mexico. He spent some time in New England and now lives in Albuquerque, New Mexico. More than 300 of his nonfiction articles have been published nationally and internationally. He is currently working on several writing projects, including the Sleepytown Beagles series.
